TOM BELL QUEEN'S COLLEGE

“Our recent recognition as one of England's leading schools for cricket at both senior and prep level reflects the investment we've made in creating a thriving cricket programme. Partnerships like this help us continue to raise standards and provide exceptional opportunities for young players to develop their game.”

QUEEN'S

"Queen's College offers everything we look for in a high performance base, with its outstanding facilities. It is a setting that allows us to focus entirely on athlete development. We're delighted to continue our partnership with Queen's and look forward to welcoming fast bowlers from across the UK and beyond this summer."
